Dear :

STAT

I have inquired with the Orderly Departure Program office in Bangkok regarding your desire to get your wife and son out of Vietnam. I have learned the following which I pass along for your information:

ODP says it has no record of your having filed an application for your wife and son. They have opened three files for your mother, sister, and a married brother and family (file no. IV-213285/6/8). They suggest that you file with ODP an affidavit of relationship for your wife and son and then supersede it with an immigrant visa petition (Immigration Service Form 1-30) when you are eligible to do so.

They suggest you go to a voluntary agency as you did when filing for the other relatives and request their assistance in completing the affidavit of relationship. I believe the notarized document I sent you might help in this respect.

Another subject: I have learned that you have a few dollars in the federal civil service retirement system. We can have this sent to you as a refund. Please just sign where I have marked the red "x" and indicate your address where you wish to receive the refund check. We'll fill in the other portions based on what we know from your personnel file.

If there is any problem I can help with, please let me know. I hope things are going well with you.

.Best regards.
